SFR2 translate guide from foreign educational credits

- Meeting with first and second cycle student councils
- För eko: sustainability & speak up week
- KREM: tomorrow meeting
- Pol Sci: formality RALF meeting
- Very informal so they don't take attendance
- Message specific person
- Public health: int students to sweden and department party
- KREM elects every semester at the first meeting. (Chair for a year)
- Possible election systems.
- At för eko also in september with representatives and board before in the previous year to do it preparatory.

Meeting 11/9

AKBA

- New board every year (process of transferring knowledge)
- How to carry over knowledge from one year to the next

Education

- To examroom instead of essays because of chatGPT
- Foresee issues with examinations (e.g. weekend etc)
- Search for alternative methods
- Department of IR and EH is also very essay intensive
- Add oral exam?

För eko

- Exams at the weekends (!)
- Some courses with a very high dropout ration (fail)
- One of them is on zoom (lectures pre-recorded)
- On youtube
- Q&A sessions
- Requires more self-discipline
- Different evaluation
- Now student representatives that gather information and write a report (lets see how that works out and if it can be replicated among other faculties)

Political science

- Grew to 7 people Woohoo
- Translated all documents to English
- Compensation for RALF never get compensation still!

ii. Diskussionsfrågor för doktorander / Discussions for PhD students and candidates:

Is it possible to have a break in the defense?

What happens when exams are moving mostly on campus?

Is there a way that the university can support non-eu students visavi migrationsverket?

b. Joint discussion

Put AI and it's effects exams on the ongoing issues list.
