1.6. Approval of the agenda

The agenda was approved.

2. Reports

2.1. SUS Kansli och Presidium

A report from SUS presidium has been sent out to everyone. A short summarize of what was brought up in the report is, SU is discussing to go back to the open hours that SU had before the pandemic, Campus Albano have opened and that the three teacher institutions IPD, MND and HSD will merge into one institution from the 1/1 2022. Jenny reports that networks for student representatives in RALV and for chairs in student- and PhD students councils will start during the upcoming month.

2.2. Faculty councils

The main discussion with the faculty of Law is the balance lectures being held on campus and lectures that are also available through Zoom. Juridiska Linjerådets wish is that there should always be one digital group so that students who cannot attend the lecture on campus due to for example minor sickness can still attend. Elinor wishes that the issue of this kind of hybrid teaching is raised on a central level as well.

HFR elected a new chair and is also looking at new ways to present reports during the meetings.

2.3. Faculty clubs

The faculty clubs have had their introduction weeks which has been very successful and most of the upcoming activities are plan to be on campus.

2.4. Other reports

All reports have been sent out to the members beforehand. In them no questions were raised other than from the representative in Granskingsgruppen which Jenny has answered.
